

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: The Clark Group
Bobby Clark - 859-233-7623

July 19, 2005
Lexington, Kentucky

The Clark Group releases the 18th Edition of the Kentucky Directory Gold Book

The Clark Group announced today the release of the 18th edition of The Kentucky Directory Gold Book, a comprehensive compilation of government agencies, elected officials, schools and colleges, law firms, associations, and other data concerning Kentucky government, education and business. The Gold Book contains over 50,000 names, titles, addresses and contact information. It is now also available in a CD-ROM subscription service with online updates posted each month.

Bobby Clark, founder and CEO says, "We are excited about the latest edition of the Gold Book, which again provides our customers with the accurate, timely information they have grown accustomed to receiving in our publications. Our new CD-ROM subscription service with its monthly internet updates is an example of the benefits of the ever-changing technology in the publishing business. We are pleased to offer this service to our customers who require access to current and timely information."

"In just a few months, we will be releasing our newest publication, Clark's Kentucky Almanac and Book of Facts, which will reinforce our position as the premier information provider for Kentucky," Clark said. The Premier Edition of the almanac is scheduled for distribution in October 2005 in major retail chains and other sales outlets throughout Kentucky and beyond.

The Clark Group was founded in 1988 as Clark Publishing when Bobby Clark published the first version of The Kentucky Directory Gold Book. A complete history of The Clark Group and its products can be found at www.theclarkgroupinfo.com. The Clark Group also publishes a pocket-sized picture book of legislators, a media guide, and the only print directory of state government employees.

The Clark Group's products can be ordered by calling 800-944-3995 or online at www.theclarkgroupinfo.com or www.kyalmanac.com.

###

For more information about the 18th Edition of The Kentucky Directory Gold Book:

Detailed information about the Gold Book -

<http://www.clarkpublishing.com/ClarkPubList.asp?subdeptid=227&deptid=48>

Sample Gold Book Pages - http://www.clarkpublishing.com/2005_06GBSamplePages.pdf

For more information about Clark's Kentucky Almanac and Book of Facts 2006:

Visit www.kyalmanac.com

Photo of the Kentucky Almanac Cover - www.clarkpublishing.com/kyalmanac300dpi.jpg

What our customers say about the Gold Book:

“I think the Gold Book is the best thing since sliced bread. Our organization references it constantly.”

— Jayne Crisp, Western Kentucky Educational Cooperative

“The Gold Book is a great reference for government agencies, elected officials and school information. I refer to The Gold Book for valuable information that would otherwise take significant time to find. The information is always accurate and it is easy to find.”

— Belinda Gates, Luckett & Farley Architects, Engineers and Construction Managers, Inc.

“Absolutely the best source of essential information about who’s who and who does what in Kentucky that I have ever seen.” — Ray Larson, Fayette County Commonwealth’s Attorney

“Right at my fingertips is all the information I need to reach government and association officials. I can’t imagine running a business like the Kentucky League of Cities without my Gold Book.”

— Sylvia Lovely, Kentucky League of Cities

“Without a doubt, The Kentucky Directory Gold Book is the greatest resource for information available in Kentucky. The ease with which I can find the right name, address, phone number and critical information is amazing. The indexing of each section lets me go right to the page I need and saves me time and frustration. Anyone who needs to reach people in Kentucky should absolutely have The Gold Book handy. It is truly worth its weight in gold.” — Larry Maggard, Associated Industries of Kentucky

“The Gold Book is an essential asset for any professional’s desk. Whether your firm is involved in selling, marketing, regulating, retailing, servicing or manufacturing, the applications of the Gold Book information are endless.” — Barclay B. McCoy, McCoy & McCoy Laboratories, Inc.

“I have been using the Gold Book for over seven years. I use The Gold Book because it is the perfect resource – lots of information in one compact publication. I can quickly and easily find key officials in federal, state, and local governments as well as other lawyers. It’s a great timesaver.”

— Jim Newberry, Wyatt Tarrant & Combs